What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

TYPES OF LOAN MISREPRESENTATIONS AND FRAUD

The following are examples of fraudulent misrepresentation or concealment that are prohibited. This is not an all-inclusive list.

Submission of False or Misleading Information: This includes but is not limited to submitting false statements on loan applications and/or falsifying documents purporting to substantiate credit, employment, income, deposit and asset information, including identity, ownership, or non-ownership of real property.

1. Forgery. Signing any documents, including letters of explanation, on behalf of clients.
2. Occupancy Misrepresentations. Submitting incorrect information regarding current occupancy or the intent to maintain minimum continuing occupancy as stated in the Security Instrument.
3. Concealment of Relevant Information. Broker must obtain and disclose accurate information on the loan application. The submission of information or documentation that is known or should be suspected of being false or misleading is considered misrepresentation and/or fraud. The following are examples:
 - 3.1 a) Simultaneous or consecutive processing of multiple owner-occupied loan applications from one applicant on multiple properties; or b) Simultaneous or consecutive processing of multiple loan applications from one applicant supplying inconsistent information on each application.
 - 3.2 Permitting an applicant or interested third party to "assist" with processing of the loan, including but not limited to hand carrying verifications, requesting credit reports, or ordering appraisals or any other documentation provided by third-party vendors.

CONSEQUENCES

Loan fraud is costly to all parties involved. RISE TPO stands behind the quality of its loan production. Fraudulent loans damage RISE TPO's reputation with investors and mortgage insurance providers. For those who participate in committing loan fraud the price is costly as well. Below are potential consequences to those parties involved in loan fraud.

CONSEQUENCES TO BROKER/LENDER

The following are examples of fraudulent misrepresentation or concealment that are prohibited. This is not an all-inclusive list.

3. Civil action against Broker/Lender by RISE TPO

CONSEQUENCES TO BORROWER

NOTE: Foreclosure under this section of the Deed of Trust does not require Borrower to be in payment default. As such, the Borrower will not have the benefit of reinstatement. In order to cure the default, the Borrower must pay off the loan in full prior to the sale of the property."
2. Criminal prosecution by legal authorities
3. Civil action against Borrower by RISE TPO
4. Civil action against Borrower by parties to the loan transaction, such as the seller and/or real estate agent

WHEREAS, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall apply to all Covered Transactions; and

WHEREAS, it is understood by Broker that it is the policy of RISE TPO to comply fully with the Compensation Rule, which means, among other things, that RISE TPO will not pay Compensation to a MLO based on the terms of a Covered Transaction, or a proxy for a term, nor will RISE TPO pay Compensation to a Broker if it has received Compensation from the borrower; and

2. Definitions:

 - a. Compensation: Broker represents and warrants it will comply at all times with the Compensation Rule. Without limiting the foregoing, for each loan application package submitted to RISE TPO for funding consideration, Broker represents and warrants that all Compensation will be paid by one source, in accordance with the Compensation Rule, meaning that Broker will be paid either by the borrower or RISE TPO. Broker represents and warrants it did not and shall not receive Compensation based on the terms of a Covered Transaction.
